

Lord Jesus I thank you that you love me all the time.

Forgive me when I have doubted your love.

Forgive me for those times when unbelief has stopped me hearing your voice and has robbed me of testimony.

I confess today the unbelief in my ancestors. I confess that rejection caused them to doubt your love and affected their ability to love others including me.

So today I confess the presence of rejection, self rejection, low self esteem and the resulting fear and anxiety both in my life and in the lives of my ancestors.

Today I choose to forgive my ancestors for this sin and I release them from all the consequences in my life.

I ask you to forgive my sin in allowing rejection, self rejection, low self esteem and fear and anxiety into my life. I renounce these sins and every ungodly belief that has caused me to doubt your love and in the name of Jesus I break every stronghold of rejection, self rejection, low self esteem, fear and anxiety over my life and I command every demon associated with these strongholds to leave my life now in Jesus' name.

Lord I give you permission to take down all the walls of isolation I have built around myself and today I set you as a seal over my heart and determine never to doubt your love again; choosing to trust and rejoice in you in all circumstances. I let go of control. I let go of worry; I let go of personal ambition choosing to trust you. I embrace your call on my life. Fill me again with your Holy Spirit. Give me fresh revelation of your love; let me live in you manifest presence and make my life fruitful, in Jesus' name,
Amen
